Community is the fabric of the way of life in Garrett County. Volunteers participate in a number of local civic organizations, and local businesses also do their part.

We're Pet Friendly

Pets are welcome at many lodgings, and almost a third of rental homes allow pets.

The state parks and forests vary in their rules. Savage River and Potomac-Garrett State Forests allow pets in designated areas, in some campgrounds, and on hiking trails on a leash.

In all cases, businesses require proper pet etiquette at all times. Pick up a detailed list of pet-friendly spots at the Visitors Center.

The mountain air is invigorating, and the pristine beauty is a spectacular backdrop for any outdoor activity. Whether it's hitting the greens or exploring a web of forest trails, Garrett County will keep you going with a wide array of activities.

BICYCLING

Garrett County's rolling terrain attracts biking enthusiasts young and old. Each spring, there are scores of regularly maintained trails in the Garrett forests and beyond. Bring your own bike, or rent one from the handful of outfitters that provide bikes and special tours. Maps are available at the Visitors Center and at www.dnr.state.md.us/publiclands/trailguide. Note: Maryland law requires helmets for riders aged 16 and under, but recommends them for everyone.

Mountain Biking

Garrett Trails (a nonprofit committed to developing more trails and promoting the county's existing trails) has collected a list of over 150 miles of trails, ranging from easy to difficult, all set against forestland and great mountain views. They are currently working to connect many of these trails into a network. The Margraff Plantation, part of the Savage River State Forest, has nice single-track mountain biking trails. Several businesses rent bikes, helmets, and other biking gear, and provide maps (as well as advice on which trails to tackle).

Freestyle Biking

If it's ramps, rails, and jumps that get you going, create your own X Games and grab some air at the local skate-and-ride park at Wisp. Supply your own equipment or rent it.

Bicycling Safety:

Whether you're cycling on or off road, follow these general safety suggestions:

- Always wear a helmet.
- Wear bright-colored clothing.
- Always ride on the correct side of the street, which is the same direction as the traffic.

- Use the bike lanes or designated bike routes where available.
- Watch traffic closely for turning cars or cars pulling out of driveways.
- Don't ride too closely to parked cars—doors can open suddenly.
- Stop at all stops signs and obey red lights just as cars do.
- If riding with a group, ride single-file.
- When riding in the dark, have reflectors on your bike and a battery-operated headlight.
- Don't wear headphones while biking.
- Remember: Although bicycles have the right-of-way, larger vehicles will always win!

GOLF: TEE OFF IN GARRETT COUNTY

Enjoy golf amid rolling hills, lush parkland, and fairways that cut through valleys ringed by striking mountain scenes made even more spectacular by the blaze of fall color. This is heaven to some who hit the greens, who are thrilled to discover that there are many golf courses within an hour's drive of Deep Creek Lake. Choices range from major mountain courses that host amateur and professional tournaments to casual courses the entire family can enjoy.

Miniature Golf

Let the budding golf pro in your family test that links know-how at the big courses, or navigate windmills in pursuit of a hole-in-one. See the Recreation Chart on page 40 for a list of the miniature golf courses—complete with sand traps and water hazards—that serve the county.

HIKING: TAKE A HIKE

One of the beauties of having more than 90,000 acres of forest and mountain landscape is that you need only yourself and perhaps a walking stick to enjoy it. Garrett County boasts more than 150 miles of maintained hiking trails in the state forests and parks. Some trails are level and unencumbered; others are steep and rocky.

Follow in the footsteps of 19th-century explorers to reach the broad view from atop St. John's Rock on Savage Mountain. Look out for the occasional black bear as you venture off-road, and remember to carry enough water and a compass. You'll see a lot of wildlife: deer, river otters, raccoons, owls, and flocks of migratory birds.

"Winter is my favorite time to hike through Swallow Falls State Park," says Amy Derr of Alexandria, VA. "We like to head over to Muddy Creek Falls. When the park is covered in snow and the falls are frozen, it's breathtaking and so peaceful!"

Trail guides are available for purchase at the parks. Backpacking is permitted in Savage River and Potomac-Garrett State Forests. A permit is required for overnight camping. Maps are available from the Visitors Center and www.dnr.state.md.us/outdoors/hiking.html. For more camping information, see the State Parks chart on page 36.

Don't want to hit the trails alone? Take advantage of guided hikes and nature walks offered by several local eco-tour companies.

ATV TRAIL RIDING

All-terrain vehicles (ATVs) are welcome on the limited miles of designated off-road-vehicle trails within the Potomac-Garrett and Savage River State Forests. A $15 DNR permit is required when you bring your own. Some trails are limited to snowmobiles only and restricted during hunting season; check www.dnr.state.md.us/publiclands/orv.html for trails and restrictions. Helmets are required.

BIRD WATCHING

With its premier spot on the Eastern Flyway, Garrett County welcomes swarms of migratory birds in spring and fall—and many stay for extended periods due to the prime habitat. The county lakes are a major stopover point for migrating waterfowl, even osprey. This mountain haven is also home to many northern and southern species' nesting pairs—more than 200 species have been seen in the Mt. Nebo Wildlife Management Area alone. Pick up a copy of the "Birds of Garrett County" brochure at the Visitors Center, and remember that naturalists are on hand at most parks. So expand your bird's-eye view—you may even spy a majestic eagle.

CAMPING

Over the decades, Garrett County has hosted its share of famous campers. Henry Ford, Harvey Firestone, and Thomas Edison went camping at Swallow Falls State Park and pitched tents more than once. In fact, Edison once got his Packard stuck in a mud puddle; one of the friendly locals lent a hand and towed the car out with a rope. If you want to give camping a try, take a look at the State Parks chart on page 36 to find the spot that best matches your outdoor interests. Private campgrounds are available.

HORSEBACK RIDING

Saddle up and take to Garrett County's designated forests and private trails that allow horseback riding. The horse you rode in on is welcome, or several stables and facilities offer trail rides for all levels of riders, and hayrides for the family—even lessons.

HORSE-DRAWN CARRIAGES

Enjoy a romantic afternoon sojourn at Pleasant Valley Dream Rides, where historic modes of transportation serve up a nostalgic ride for the modern couple or fun-seeking family. Go to www.pleasantvalleydreamrides.com or call 301.334.1688.

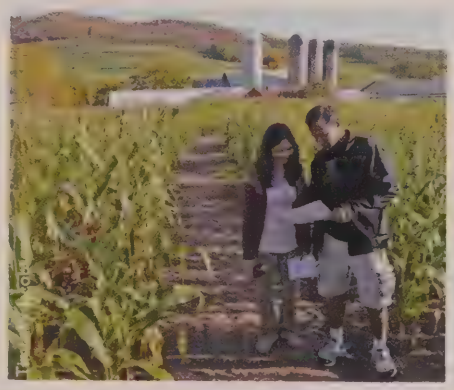
HUNTING

For centuries, Native American tribes came from as far away as Ohio to summer hunting grounds well known for their prized game. The tradition continues, as Garrett County regularly enjoys record-breaking seasons for size and number of takes. More than 80,000 combined acres of public hunting land are maintained by the state, including the Mt. Nebo Wildlife Management Area, Deep Creek Lake State Park, Potomac-Garrett State Forest, and Savage River State Forest.

Hunters must purchase a license from a Maryland DNR licensing agent; local sporting-goods stores also provide licenses and supplies. Hunting season dates and additional information are available at www.dnr.state.md.us/huntersguide. There are separate seasons for archery/bow hunting and firearms.

CORN MAZE

For a family adventure that's fun and educational, stop by the 10-acre corn maze at Cove Run Farms, a dairy farm located outside of Accident. Questions are posted at intersections inside the maze to help you determine your course through the winding passages. Open August thru October. Call 301.746.6111 or visit www.coverunfarmscornmaze.com for exact opening dates.



ROCK CLIMBING

Nearby West Virginia's Cooper's Rock and Seneca Rocks are likely spots for beginners and more experienced climbers. The newly opened Fork Run, a 550-acre recreation area managed by Adventure Sports Center International (ASCI), provides an array of opportunities for rock climbing. You can also practice your moves at climbing walls in the area, both indoor and outdoor.

ROLLERBLADING AND SKATEBOARDING

It's not just freestyle-biking enthusiasts who head to the street-savvy network of ramps and rails. Rollerbladers and skateboarders of all levels find the local skate park at Wisp a real thrill...and a challenge.

SHOOTING/SPORTING CLAYS/SKEET

Sport shooting is a blast even for non-hunters. At "Wings of Challenge" take aim at some skeet or clays with your own gun, or rent one onsite at a local outfitter.

TENNIS

The ever-popular sport of tennis is a natural in the cool mountain air, and courts throughout the county are open to the public. For information on the court closest to you and private lessons, contact the Visitors Center at 301.387.4386.

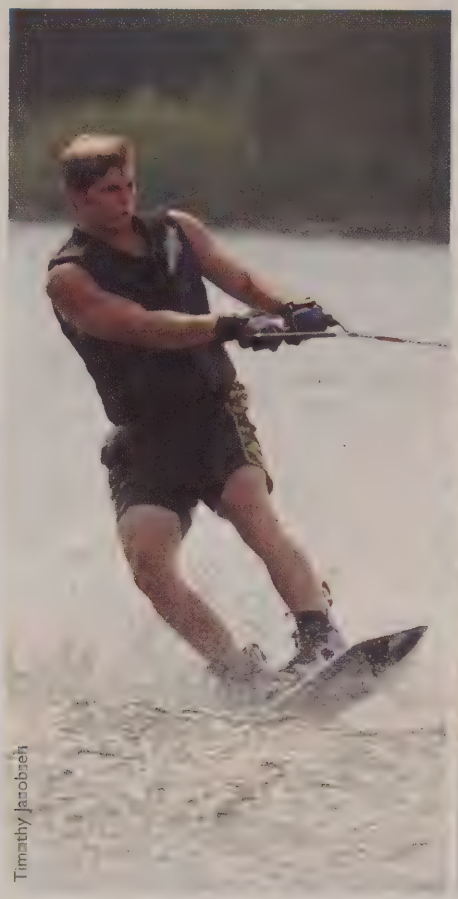
water

Robert Paine

This is a boating paradise, a fisherman's dream. Sailors race here and kayakers find tranquility. And if it's a personal watercraft or a motorboat that makes your heart race, hundreds of acres of waterways await you at Deep Creek Lake.



Timothy Jacobsen

MOTORIZED BOATING

Deep Creek Lake provides the most support for the boating community. The lake was designed with boating in mind. Several marinas can serve your needs, from rentals to supplies, including four full-service marinas with gas (see the Recreation Chart on page 40). For more boating information, law-enforcement questions, or to report accidents and injuries, contact the Natural Resources Police Office at 301.777.7771.

Jennings Randolph Lake has a boat-launch facility, floating docks, scenic overlooks, and a trail system on the Maryland side, located off Mt. Zion Road. Visit www.nab.usace.army.mil/recreation/jenran.htm., or go to the Department of Natural Resources website (http://mddnr.chesapeakebay.net/fish/state2.html) for a map of public boat ramps.

Waterskiing

Deep Creek Lake offers great skiing. If the sport is new to you, take a lesson at some outlets. Wetsuits, available at many retail shops, can make waterskiing more enjoyable and extend your ski season by several months. Ski boats, equipment, and instruction are all available on Deep Creek Lake from the marinas and local outfitters (see the Recreation Chart on page 40). Remember to give a wide berth to other boats and keep at least 100 feet from the shore.

Wakeboarding

Zooming along behind a boat on skis is one thing, but a wakeboard gives a whole different kind of thrill. Deep Creek has made a name for itself with the annual Bust Largness Wakeboarding Contest, which draws competitors from far and wide each August. Rent your boards from a shop in McHenry.

NON-MOTORIZED BOATING

Self-powered boats—rowboats, paddle-boats, kayaks, and the like—are welcome on the three big lakes. However, the smaller lakes at Herrington Manor State Park, New Germany State Park, Savage River Reservoir, and Broadford Lake Park are reserved for non-gas-powered boats only. Rentals are available from local recreational outfitters.

Sailing

The Deep Creek Yacht Racing Association sailboat races are held every weekend, Memorial Day to Labor Day, on various courses in the southern end of the lake below the Glendale Bridge, for Flying Scots and Lasers. Saturday races start at noon and 2:30 p.m. Sunday races feature four starts beginning at 1 p.m. Races are best viewed from the water.

Canoeing

Flat-water paddling is a peaceful way to enjoy the waves, and Garrett County has seven flat-water lakes and numerous rivers for canoeing. You can even bring your dog along; several outfitters have lifejackets perfect for your pooch. Be sure to check out the difficulty of any river section before your trip—kayaks and rafts will do well in some stretches that may be dicey for a canoe.

Kayaking

In Garrett County, you can experience the excitement of raging whitewater in addition to the quiet solitude of streams and rivers. Bring your own craft or rent one from a local outfitter.

Herrington Manor, Broadford, and New Germany lakes have quieter areas, great for family flat-water outings. Experience the wilderness at the Savage River Reservoir in the Savage River State Forest, easily accessed at the Dry Run Road "put in." From the water, you get a great view of steep mountains and wildlife.

Touring

Ecotours of the Savage River Reservoir, just 20 minutes away from Deep Creek, are available for both beginners and more experienced kayakers. A fully guided nature tour on a sit-inside flat-water or sea kayak generally includes equipment, lunch, and, if you're lucky, a bald-eagle sighting.

Whitewater

Numerous runs are available for the experienced and novice kayaker. You needn't wait for the spring runoff or summer rains to run the rapids, either, thanks to the opening of Adventure Sports Center International's "whitewater on demand" facility. The state-of-the-art, re-circulating whitewater course can be adjusted to deliver the best experience possible for kayakers of all skill levels and interests.

Rafting

The Youghiogheny (Yough), Jennings Randolph Lake, and Savage River Reservoir offer miles of paddling for whitewater kayaking and six- to eight-person rafts. You can choose guided or unguided tours. More than 30 whitewater runs ranging from beginner to expert are within an hour of Deep Creek Lake—the Potomac and Yough Rivers and Savage River Reservoir all flow from the heart of Garrett County. There are also tamer "ducky" tours, perfect for the whole family, on calmer parts of the rivers. See the Recreation Chart on page 40 for outfitters.

SWIMMING

Swimming in Garrett County is a remarkably refreshing experience. Although the five lakes offer a variety of water sports, swimming is the most common. There are sandy beaches at Herrington Manor, New Germany, and Deep Creek Lake State Park. All have picnicking facilities and bathhouses. Limited lifeguard hours.

FISHING

"With all of the distractions of the modern world, there isn't much chance to quiet your soul," says Don Hershfeld of Oakland, MD. "But when you fish, you can appreciate the creation around you. It's a tonic."

So cast your line into any number of the bountiful Garrett County streams known for world-class trout fishing.

For a list of stocked streams and regulations, consult the Maryland Sportfishing Guide, available from the Visitors Center and from businesses that sell fishing licenses.

Fly Fishing

Fly fishing has taken hold in Garrett County with its four world-famous rivers: the Scenic and Wild Youghiogheny (Yough), North Branch of the Potomac, Savage, and Casselman. A detailed fly fishing brochure, including hatches, is available at the Visitors Center; call 301.387.4386 or visit www.flyfishmaryland.com.

Ice Fishing

Even during the frigid winters, fishermen can still get hooked. Countless opportunities are available on Deep Creek Lake and Savage River Reservoir for "hard-water fishing." Drill a hole and drop a line: Yellow perch and walleye provide most of the action, but other species, such as northern pike, trout, pickerel, crappie, and bass are frequently caught. Ice augers and equipment may be rented at some businesses; check the Sportfishing Guide for additional information. And be sure to check with the locals or local outfitters: Ice should be at least several inches thick for safe fishing.

LAKE INFORMATION

Three major area lakes provide an abundance of space for water sports of all varieties, from boating and waterskiing to swimming and fishing. Numerous small lakes (such as the 25-acre lake in Herrington Manor State Park) also offer boating and fishing opportunities; see the State Parks chart on page 36 for additional information.

Deep Creek Lake

The recreation jewel of year-round activities, and geared toward the boating life, DCL is located in the heart of Garrett County, owned by the State of Maryland, and managed by the Department of Natural Resources.

Dimensions: Extends 13 miles.

Surface Area: 3,900 acres, with 65 miles of shoreline.

RIVER INFORMATION

World-class recreation on the four world-class rivers in Garrett County begins where the lakes leave off, offering great opportunities for fly-fishing, canoeing, kayaking, and running the rapids.

Casselman River

The Casselman is a nationally known fly-fishing area with easy access and wading in its wide stream, which provides a variety of habitat types. It actually flows north, parallel to the Youghiogheny River. Anglers will find long, productive riffle sections, deep runs, large deep holes, and even some pocket water. The river offers great spring dry-fly action and is regularly stocked with brown and rainbow trout.

North Branch of the Potomac River

The North Branch forms the border between Maryland and West Virginia from its origin at the Fairfax Stone downstream to its confluence with the Potomac South Branch. Anglers refer to this as the "Grand Slam" river because of the different varieties of trout you can catch and the numerous state-record-sized fish (trout topping 12 pounds).

Savage River

This first large tributary of the North Branch of the Potomac winds through Savage River State Forest and is surrounded by parks, forests, and camping areas. It is a destination for whitewater paddling and slalom racing; it's even hosted the United States Olympic Trials. An easy access pocket-water river, the Savage is nationally recognized for its tail water catch-and-release trout fishing.

Youghiogheny River

The Scenic and Wild Yough (pronounced "Yock") River begins in Garrett County and travels to the Gulf of Mexico via the Mississippi River. The riverbed is steep and heavily forested, dropping an average of 100 feet in elevation per mile. The result is beautiful waterfalls and enticing rapids. It is an exceptional recreational area for outdoor activities, including paddling, fishing, hiking, and biking along the banks.

Note: Access to the Youghiogheny River is limited to "public access points only." Please be sensitive to privately-owned land along the Yough.

Whether you like flying down an open mountain run on skis or a sled, or taking in the dazzling scenery on an old-fashioned sleigh ride, Garrett County offers an abundance of white wonderland fun.

Wisp Resort

SKIING

Downhill

Wisp Resort has been setting the standard for ski services ever since Ace Heise founded his dream back in 1955. Celebrating Wisp's 50th anniversary in 2005, the resort added a new alpine trail system to its 22 existing trails. North Camp has 10 trails and a variety of terrain for everyone, from beginners to black-diamond skiers and boarders.

Count on Wisp for the best snow conditions in the Mid-Atlantic. With one of the most extensive snowmaking systems in the East and water from Deep Creek Lake, Wisp can keep many of its trails open even when Mother Nature isn't cooperating. And, of course, you can rent equipment and take lessons right at the resort.

"Wisp has a little bit of everything," says Karlo Gesner of Lancaster, PA. "Fun parks, trails for every skill level, and enough acreage to leave you curled up by the fireplace at the end of a challenging day."

Contact 301.387.4911 or www.wispresort.com for general guidelines, snow information, and information on other activities (e.g., tubing, snowshoeing, the spa, and kid's programs). Rentals are also available off resort at sports-equipment outlets.

Cross-Country

If quiet forests are more your skiing style, try the well-groomed trails in Garrett County's state forests. New Germany State Park (301.895.5453), located within the Savage River State Forest, has two trails along Poplar Lick Run that are perfect for novices, as well as more challenging trails. Herrington Manor State Park (301.334.9180) also has groomed trails. Some parks provide warming lodges with toasty fires, trail maps, and information on weather and snow conditions. Reasonable rentals are available at concessions at the parks. Check out maps and additional information at www.dnr.state.md.us/outdoors.

Several local lodges are near groomed trails within the Savage River State Forest, and some even rent equipment. There are golf courses and farms that also open their grounds to cross-country skiers during the winter. Check with local outfitters as well; some offer eco-tours and lessons along with equipment.

DOGSLEDDING

Non-skiers can still schuss through the snow or schuss when there's no snow—and let the beautiful dogs do all the work! No snow, no problem—give dog-carting a whirl. Contact Husky Power Dog Sledding at 301.746.7200 or go to www.huskypowerdogsledding.com.

SLEIGH RIDES

Snuggle up under a blanket as you dash through the snow in an old-fashioned one-horse open sleigh. It's even dreamier at sunset or across a moonlit field. Contact Pleasant Valley Dream Rides at 301.334.1688 or www.pleasantvalleydreamrides.com.

SLEDDING AND TUBING

Be a kid again and jump on that Flexible Flyer for pure winter joy. Forgot your sled? No worries. Stop at Herrington Manor State Park (301.334.9180) and rent one for only $3 for a half-day ($6 for a full-day). Choose from several of the sled hills in the park.

"I love to take my two girls sledding when we're in Deep Creek," says Jennifer Newsome of Baltimore. "There's always plenty of snow, so we never miss the opportunity to head out for a few runs before heading inside for some hot chocolate with marshmallows."

Love the thrill of the ride down, but hate the walk back up? Then head to the Bear Claw Snow Tubing Park at Wisp Resort, where two conveyor carpets carry tubes and their riders up the hill. No special equipment required—just warm clothes and smiles! (No scarves or loose clothing, please.) Children must be 42 inches tall to ride. The park is open seven days a week throughout the winter season. The park is also available for private parties and group sessions. For more information, contact Wisp at 301.387.4911 or www.wispresort.com.

SNOWBOARDING

Get extreme on the slopes at Wisp. The Pro Terrain Park offers high-adrenaline excitement for everyone. The park has hosted a series of competitions, including the Burton Friday Night Rail Jam Series. A set of thrilling fun boxes and rails—with timid five-foot to towering 20-foot rails—makes Wisp the spot for snowboarding prowess. Check out other terrain parks throughout the mountain or enjoy the freeride on Wisp's groomed slopes. Lessons are available, and you can rent snowboards at the resort, as well as at several off-resort sports-equipment outlets.

SNOWMOBILING

With the touch of a throttle, surge through snow banks and forests. Snowmobiles are permitted in state forests on designated trails. Permits are required ($15/year, available at state park offices). Some local businesses offer guided tours on private trails. Check the maps at www.dnr.state.md.us/outdooradventures/snow1.html for designated trails.

SNOWSHOEING

Quiet yet exhilarating, snowshoeing offers a hike in the woods without the skill and strength required for cross-country skiing. Groomed trails aren't a requirement for this sport—if you can walk, you can snowshoe.

"I love to snowshoe! It's so easy and a great workout," says Paula Yudelevit of Oakland, MD. "I usually walk on the wooded trails. The trees are covered with snow—it's gorgeous. My dogs follow my snowshoe imprints so they don't sink in the path!"

Most outlets that rent skis also have snowshoes, including local parks. Deep Creek Lake State Park, Swallow Falls, Herrington Manor, and Potomac-Garrett State Forest also offer tours, as do a few local businesses. See the Recreation Chart on page 40 for details.

In between splashing in the lake or learning to ski, the kids may need a different kind of diversion. Garrett County offers plenty to keep them busy no matter what the weather may be.

AMUSEMENT PLACES/ ACTIVITY CENTERS

Tons of fun all in one spot! The young and the young at heart will have a great time at several Deep Creek Lake-area amusement centers, entertainment hubs that combine need-for-speed go-karts with the challenge of mini-golf or Laser-Tag and the giggles of an arcade. Some offer bumper boats and batting cages, too. Test your mountaineering skills on the climbing walls or your aim with a round of paint ball. Or for those rainy days, hit the multiplex and choose from eight first-run movies.

LEARN TO SKI AND SNOWBOARD AT WISP

Wisp Resort features a Children's Learning Center for kids ages 3 to 14. The resort offers two on-the-snow programs: Willy Wisp for 3- to 7- year-olds and Club Wisp for those 8-14. Professional instructors help children turn their first ski or snowboard experience into a sport they'll love. With full- and half-day group programs, kids can socialize with their peers in an atmosphere designed especially for them. Both programs include lift tickets and ski or snowboard equipment. Call 301.387.4911 or visit www.wispresort.com.

FARM FUN/AGRITOURISM

The harvest is fun at any of the 15 area farms that have enthusiastically joined the agritourism movement. The Visitors Center and the Rural Development Coalition have put together a "Working Farms Tours" brochure to get you into the heart of the local agricultural tradition. Meet an alpaca, pet a lamb, or see maple syrup come straight out of the tree.

Find out how vineyards get such fine wine out of those twisted grapevines. Get lost in a corn maze, help milk a cow, or even feed a baby calf.

"Garrett County's working farms are a terrific place to bring your entire family," says Darlene Skidmore of Oakland. "They allow visitors to feed the goats, help gather the eggs, hold baby bunnies, or just sit and enjoy the country sounds of roosters crowing and watch the free-range chickens, guineas, ducks, geese, and rabbits in a natural environment."

Note: These are all working farms, so please call to inquire about hours and prices before visiting.

OTHER LEARNING ADVENTURES/ MORE ANIMALS

Kids love animals: from little furry creatures to the biggest beasts, their fascination is universal, and Garrett County offers many outlets for it. Some farms have petting zoos and more (see Farm Fun). The whole family can enjoy a horse-drawn carriage ride through the fields of Pleasant Valley; in the winter, snuggle up under a blanket for a sleigh ride.

Your horse is welcome in Garrett County, or you can try a guided trail ride from one of the many stables and ranches that offer riding for kids and adults (see Horseback Riding on page 11). For something unique, try a dogsled ride in Garrett

Timothy Jacobsen

County, one of the few spots on the East Coast where you'll find this activity (and the only one south of the Mason-Dixon Line). You can even "dog-sled on wheels" on those non-snowy days.

MOUNTAIN COASTER

Thanks to the Mountain Coaster at Wisp Resort, the slopes aren't just for skiing anymore. Open year-round, the coaster runs up the side of Wisp Mountain. Its tracks are built over the ski trails, so you literally ride over the heads of skiers as they whiz by below. As the two-seat coaster cart ascends 1,300 feet, gaze down at Deep Creek Lake far off in the distance before your dizzying descent of twists, turns, and corkscrews.

DEEP CREEK LAKE DISCOVERY CENTER

This nature center celebrates local critters and throws in some learning along the way (but the kids will be having too much fun to notice). Children can put their hands in a black bear paw print, touch fossils from times long ago, and sneak a peek under a microscope to learn about local underwater ecology. The Discovery Center also has educational programs ranging from leisurely observation hikes and campfire storytelling to butterfly tagging. Call 301.387.7067 or visit www.discoverycenterdcl.com

LEARNING ADVENTURES/ SPECIAL EVENTS

What better place to experience the outdoors as a family than Garrett County? Find out how to paddle a kayak through the still waters of the Savage River Reservoir or take a guided hike and discover which animals make their homes in the county's rich forests. Local eco-companies offer educational touring options for the whole family, including kayaking lesson and guided hikes. There's even a toddler program.

One of the projects of GCAC is the operation of The Gallery Shop in Oakland. Over 100 regional artists exhibit and sell a range of work in various mediums including paintings, photography, woodcrafts, and pottery. In addition, you'll find notecards and small gift items. Free demonstrations are offered throughout the summer. A new program of GCAC is the annual Artist Studio Tours. Held each July, the public is invited to visit working studios, see demonstrations, and buy one-of-a-kind works of art. In 2009, more than 30 artists participated at 14 countywide locations. For more information including event listings, call 301.334.6580 or visit www.garrettarts.com.

Created in the 1950s as a support network for Appalachian artists, Spruce Forest is prospering and continually drawing visitors from the Historic National Road and I-68. Call 301.895.3332 or visit www.spruceforest.org.

The Spruce Forest Artisan Village is located adjacent to the Penn Alps Restaurant and Craft Shop. HISTORY

Casselman Inn/Casselman River Bridge

Cattlemen and settlers headed west in the early 19th century traveling in coaches and wagons through the wilds of Garrett County, mostly along the Historic National Road, America's first federally funded highway. In 1813, the Casselman River Bridge was built near Grantsville to expedite the journey. It was, at the time, the largest single-span stone arch bridge in the world, earning a listing on the National Register of Historic Places. Naturally, much grew up around this important juncture, including several hostelries and Stanton's Mill. Built in 1797 and used continuously until 1994, the mill has been restored and once again grinds meals and flours from locally grown and imported grains.

A cultural area and artisan's village, the Spruce Forest Artisan Village, occupies the parkland surrounding the bridge. And, in the tradition of the old drovers, you can grab a meal and lay your head on a pillow at the historic Casselman Inn, built in 1842.

Cranesville Subarctic Swamp

Walk in the footsteps of prehistoric creatures in the 850-acre wetland along the border of West Virginia. Formed nearly 15,000 years ago, it was one of the first National Natural Landmarks to be designated by the National Park Service in 1965, and has been described as "a small piece of forest and bog that remained after the Ice Age." Now owned by the Nature Conservancy, it's not much different from that time—wild and still home to a range of plants usually found in the extreme northern areas of Alaska and Canada, the southernmost point for larch forests. A boardwalk crosses the swamp, and six trails wind through this unique tundra region. For more information, go to www.nature.org and click on Where We Work.

HISTORY OF
Garrett County and Deep Creek Lake

The Drane House, a project from the Garrett Cultural and Historic Society

Bordered by Pennsylvania and West Virginia, Garrett County became, in 1872, the last Maryland county to be established, essentially becoming the end of the state's line. From the B&O Railroad Station to the Historic National Road, Garrett County offers visitors a wealth of historic experiences.

Deep Creek Lake

The county's most popular tourist attraction, Deep Creek Lake, is a hub of activity. At 3,900 acres, Maryland's largest freshwater lake is part Mother Nature, part human ingenuity. The Youghiogheny Hydro-Electric Corporation created the lake, using the surrounding streams to generate electrical power. One-thousand men began construction on November 1, 1923, and two-and a-half years later, in May 1925, the electric plant began operation. The lake is 75 feet at its deepest and has 65 miles of shoreline. Today, Deep Creek Lake is owned by the State of Maryland and is managed by the Department of Natural Resources, Maryland Park Service.

Fairfax Stone

Small in stature, but large in history, this stone is one of the oldest markers in the United States, and is located on the border between Maryland and West Virginia. Now part of a state park carrying its name, the stone played a prominent role in determining the boundary of the two states; it was here that George Washington marked the headwaters of the Potomac River. Head south on Rt. 219 until you see signs for Fairfax Stone State Park—it's about two miles off the road.

Highest Point in Maryland

With an elevation of 3,360 feet, Hoye-Crest on Backbone Mountain is the highest point in Maryland. A densely forested and serene area, this is a favorite destination for hikers, and was named for Capt. Charles Edward Hoye, founder of the Garrett County Historical Society. Situated close to the state line, the easiest access is from West Virginia's Monongahela National Forest. (Head south on Rt. 219; the sign will be on your left.) Don't forget to pick up a certificate near the marker confirming that you made it to Maryland's highest point. For more information, stop at the Garrett County Visitors Center or call 301.387.4386.

MUSEUMS/ HISTORIC HOMES

Drane House

In Accident, you'll find the oldest residence in Garrett County. Built for James and Priscilla Drane and their children in 1797, the two-story, hand-hewn-log structure has been painstakingly restored and is open to the public for tours by appointment and for special events. Call the Accident Town Hall at 301.746.6346.

Friend Family Association's National Heritage Museum

Friendsville, a community along the Youghiogheny, was settled by John Friend in 1765 and is the oldest of Garrett County's towns. A building at the intersection of First and Maple streets now stands as a testament to the time and serves as the headquarters of the Friend Family Association of America. Those wishing to research their genealogical history can visit the association's library—named for Colonel Lester D. Friend Sr.—on the building's second floor. Research must be done onsite, and it's wise to call ahead. Open May to November; call 301.746.4690 or go to www.friendfamilyassociation.org.

Grantsville Museum

Grantsville's Community Museum, on the Historic National Road, is housed in the old town library. The museum presents a special exhibit featuring the work and equipment of renowned photographer Leo Beachy (1874-1927), who abruptly left teaching at the age of 31 in order to document his obsession—his family, community, and his world in Appalachia—before it was lost.

The Community Museum also includes exhibits from First State Bank, the initial occupant of the building, in the original bank vault. Other items on display include clothing, toys, glassware, and other historical items from the area. Call 301.895.5454.

Garrett County Historical Museum

You can obtain an informative overview of the region at the Garrett County Historical Society Museum on Second Street in Oakland. As part of its setting in Dailey Park, the museum retains the porch façade, gas house, and gazebo of the historic Deer Park Hotel, a former grand dame of lodgings. Get a glimpse into the lives of the early settlers and more recent residents of the mountain communities. The museum is staffed by local volunteers. Call 301.334.3226 for information and hours.

Garrett County Historical Society Transportation Museum

Opening in the fall of 2010, the Garrett County Historical Society Transportation Museum will feature antique vehicles, Deep Creek Lake artifacts and photos, and a classroom. The Liberty Street building will also feature four façades and a mural. For more information, call 301.334.3226. For more information visit www.deepcreekhospitality.com/fr_gc_historical.asp.

TOWN TOURS

Accident

How did the town get its unusual name? One account claims that when Lord Baltimore opened western Maryland for settlement in 1774, William Deakins and Brooke Beall set out to survey land. When the work was completed, the men discovered they had selected the same tract to survey "by accident."

The Drane House, built in 1797, is the oldest known structure in Accident. It is one of the few original frontier plantation homes remaining on Maryland's tableland and represents the area's tobacco-growing days. Today, community parks offer Accident's residents and visitors a fishing pond, pavilion, Little League field, walking trail, and other amenities.

Deer Park

Once famous for its luxurious resort hotel, Deer Park is again poised for growth. An increasing number of homes and historic buildings are being restored. Founded in 1774, the town grew rapidly in the mid 1880s as the B&O Railroad carried wealthy summer vacationers from Baltimore and Washington to enjoy the cool mountain air. In fact, the day after their wedding in 1886, President Grover Cleveland and his bride arrived in Deer Park to celebrate their honeymoon. Today, the Deer Park Inn Bed and Breakfast welcomes guests—newlyweds or otherwise—with an elegant restaurant featuring authentic French cuisine. Deer Park is also home to the Flying Scot Sailboat Company, which manufactures handcrafted state-of-the-art fiberglass sailboats. And, if you're wondering, yes, it's also the original source of Deer Park Natural Spring Water.

Friendsville

The site of the first settlement (Selbysport is the oldest town) in Garrett County, Friendsville was named for John Friend Sr., who came to the area in 1765 and purchased land from the Native Americans. When the B&O Railroad was built a century later, in 1890, the town became an important shipping point for lumber products. With its prime location along the Youghiogheny River, Friendsville is now most noted for its adventure sports, which include excellent whitewater and hiking opportunities. Friendsville is also home of the Friend Family Association's National Heritage Museum and Library, the Friendsville Days summer celebration, and an annual fiddle and banjo competition.

Remembering GARRETT COUNTY'S LOST FRIENDS

Helmuth "Ace" Heise

"What started it all for Dad was simply a love, a genuine love, for Deep Creek Lake and for our county. The vision came because Father felt that others surely would share the same joy he felt in being here," recounted Martin Heise, Helmuth "Ace" Heise's son. Helmuth was founder-developer of Will O'the Wisp and Wisp Resort, Maryland's only ski resort.

Almost 60 years ago, Wisp was a towering and treeless mound of earth known as Marsh Mountain. In the early 1950s, Heise, his wife, Evelyn, and several Garrett County businessmen dreamed of transforming the area into a four season vacation area. Over the years, Heise was a builder and a motivating force behind the development of several improvements to the lake area, including the Four Seasons Dining Room (1961), Village Inn at Wisp (1971), the Will O'the Wisp Prestige Condominiums (1975) and an 18-hole golf course at Wisp (1981). In 1998, the Garrett County Chamber of Commerce recognized Mr. and Mrs. Heise's accomplishments with the establishment of the Helmuth & Evelyn Heise Entrepreneurial Spirit Award. We thank Ace for his tremendous contributions to Garrett County.

Gary A. Yoder

With his outgoing personality and amazing storytelling ability, Gary Yoder was a friend to all but especially to the people of Garrett County. His 30 years of work with the Maryland Department of Natural Resources was a great benefit to everyone who loves our lakes and streams. Among other things, Gary was instrumental in the acquisition of public accesses to the North Branch of the Potomac River. Governor O'Malley has announced that the access at Black Oak will be renamed in Yoder's honor.

Grantsville

In 1785, Baltimore innkeeper Daniel Grant was awarded a land grant; a decade later, he moved to a spot in northern Garrett County called Cornucopia. There he established Grant's Village, settling along the route constructed by General Braddock's troops during the French and Indian War (the Historic National Road was later built along this same route). The nearby Casselman Bridge, built on the National Road in 1813 and still standing, was the largest single-span stone arch of its time. An 1818 stagecoach stop in Grantsville now houses Penn Alps restaurant and craft shop. At the adjacent Spruce Forest Artisan Village, visitors can tour log cabins, schoolhouses, a church, and other rustic buildings that house a variety of working artists.

Kitzmiller

Once a booming company town, Kitzmiller was one of the largest producers and shippers of coal in Garrett County. Today, citizens continue to enjoy their town's rich history, especially as they celebrate "homecoming" each July. Sitting on the North Branch of the Potomac River, Kitzmiller offers many recreational opportunities, including fishing, picnicking, and strolling through the botanical garden. The town's river walk creates a scenic view for bicyclists, skaters, and hikers, who often venture off into the wilds along the North Branch.

Loch Lynn Heights

In the heyday of the B&O Railroad, Loch Lynn Heights flourished as a resort destination for folks from the Baltimore/Washington area in search of a luxurious mountain getaway. Today, Loch Lynn Heights is a family-focused community boasting a playground, three soccer fields, two softball fields, and a concession stand with rest facilities. Loch Lynn Heights is also home to Radio FX, which includes WKHJ, WMSG, and the Train (WWHC).

Mountain Lake Park

Originally envisioned as a Chautauqua-style summer resort, Mountain Lake Park, established in 1881, welcomed thousands of visitors from 1882 until 1942. They would visit the Park to enjoy the cool, clean mountain air and the numerous cultural, educational, and recreational activities. The B&O Railroad provided a convenient escape from hot summers in the Baltimore/Washington area for many people, including President William Howard Taft, Mark Twain, and William Jennings Bryan. Today, Mountain Lake Park is a quiet residential community noted for its unique character and rich variety of Victorian homes. For 89 years, Mountain Lake Park has also been the home of the Western Maryland Clay Court Championship, held each August.

Oakland

The National Historic Trust designated Oakland as a National Main Street Community in 1998. With its predominant Victorian sections, it has also been recognized as a "Preserve America" Community. The 1884 Queen Anne-style B&O Train Station is one of the architectural and historic centerpieces of the town.

The Mountain Fresh Farmers Market regularly takes over the central outdoor pavilion, which is also host to many special events, such as the Little Yough Summer Music Festival. A handicapped-accessible fishing pier, kayak and canoe launch, and fitness trail are nearby. Strollers can enjoy the Garrett County Historical Society Museum, numerous shops, restaurants, the historic Oakland Hotel site, and a pedestrian bridge over the headwaters of the Little Youghiogheny River and Washington Spring (from which George Washington allegedly drank).

Oakland's parks welcome many for outdoor recreation, and the town also boasts an 18-hole championship golf course. As the county seat, Oakland offers unique business opportunities through the Main Street Program, in association with the Greater Oakland Business Association (GOBA).

A GREAT PLACE TO stay awhile

There's no rush in Garrett County, so stay awhile, perhaps overnight or even longer. Ritzy and rustic, spacious and comfy, we have lodgings for every taste. Our vacation rental companies have countless options to choose from. In addition, you'll find a number of hotels and resorts, bed-and-breakfasts and inns, and cabins and lodges. And if you're looking for that second home far from the frenzy of the Beltway, our real estate agents are available to assist in your search.

VACATION HOMES

Hundreds of homeowners rent out their houses to vacationers, some through the five rental companies in the area and others on their own. First-class amenities include wet bars and gourmet kitchens, indoor pools, and saunas. (Homes with enticing names like "Mountain Fantasy" and "Memory Maker" live up to their billing with hot tubs, pool tables, and mammoth decks overlooking the water.) Choose the full-service options available at many, including concierge and linen service, plus 24-hour hotlines. There's even a personal-chef option so you can use that beautiful kitchen without breaking a sweat.

Contact the owners directly, or work with one of the five major vacation rental home companies to find a range of home rentals (as well as sales if you're looking for that second home in the mountains). Ask about specific property amenities, including: lake-front, lake access, or lake area, or easy ski or golf access. Many rentals also sport a hot tub or pool on site, or community access.

SECOND HOMES

How often do you go away for the weekend to a new destination and say, "I could see myself living here"? What if you could find a place with such a unique variety of vacation homes and lifestyles that just making the decision to invest there would be fun in and of itself?

Garrett County is such a place. Purchasing a vacation home in our community is more than a real estate investment. It is an investment in living.

Combine your dream of a four-season mountaintop-getaway home with the allure of the myriad activities, festivals, parks, forests, waterfalls, golf, world-class fishing, and cultural events that Garrett County offers—you'll soon realize that this unique combination cannot be duplicated.

Attracted by the flexibility of telecommuting and growth in the region, young professionals are increasingly moving their families to Garrett County. It's the perfect combination of work and play. As much as there is to do, it's still peaceful.

"People come to a place like this to rejuvenate and recharge their batteries," says Annie London, who, with her husband, bought a vacation home at Deep Creek. "There's still plenty of wide-open spaces and it's tranquil."

Garrett County is also a wonderful retirement location for people who want to continue their active outdoor lifestyle in a place with top-notch local services and opportunities for community involvement, and it's far from the pace of city life—but not too far. Plus, owning a retirement home here provides that special place for important family gatherings, holidays, and other memory-making times.

Kathy and Stuart Lumsden of Baltimore bought their house on Deep Creek Lake 11 years ago so their kids could enjoy it, and they're looking forward to the next generation. "My husband says the house at Deep Creek is a grandchild magnet," Kathy says with a laugh.

A vacation or retirement with unmatched choices in lifestyle and experience right at your doorstep is closer than you think. Please refer to the advertising section that features numerous homebuilders, real estate companies, agents, and services waiting to help make your dream a reality.

SMALL MEETINGS/ RETREATS

The tranquil beauty of Mountain Maryland lends itself to the quiet solitude sought for your next meeting or retreat. Garrett County has a bevy of options, from resorts to restaurants, inns to hotels. In addition to overnight accommodations and dining, many of these facilities offer conference rooms, free wireless Internet, and, in some cases, boat parking! (See the Dining & Meetings Chart on page 51.)

RESORTS & HOTELS

Various hotel options in a mountain setting offer lots of possibilities. High-end accommodations feature scenic views overlooking the lake, spa services, Jacuzzis, tennis, billiards, fireplaces, restaurants and lounges, live entertainment, and wireless Internet. Area hotels at various price ranges—including those for the budget-minded—boast the amenities and year-round recreational activities of Deep Creek Lake and other nearby attractions.

INNS AND BED & BREAKFASTS

Whether it's the vivid colors of autumn or the falling snow in winter, the budding blossoms of spring or golden summer days, nothing accentuates the seasons like settling into a quaint B&B or historic inn after a full day in Garrett County. Some accommodations offer rooms with hot tubs and fireplaces, as well as a host of other amenities ranging from golf and tennis to dining and special "getaway packages." In most cases, B&Bs and inns are just a short drive, stroll, or boat ride away from all the activities at Deep Creek Lake.

You'll discover the ultimate escape when you book yourself into one of Garrett County's many lodges or rental cabins. For the rugged types who still enjoy a roof over their heads, Herrington Manor and New Germany State parks rent small, rustic cabins. Our rental companies also have a number of furnished vacation cabins large enough for the entire family.

If you enjoy both Mother Nature and first-class services and accommodations, then go no further than Garrett County, with its abundance of secluded lodges.

For a complete listing of our wide variety of lodging options, see the Accommodations Charts on pg. 63 & 64.

A Recipe for a Romantic Getaway

"My wife and I have stayed at some wonderful places at Deep Creek. I asked her to marry me on the moonlit porch of a lake-front inn."

—Tom Jock, Columbia, MD

In Garrett County, you'll find an array of options when it comes to cozy accommodations for you and that special someone. Whether it's an anniversary, a honeymoon (in 1886, President Cleveland and his bride enjoyed a Garrett County honeymoon), or simply a weekend escape, our elegant resorts, rustic cottages, historic inns, and charming bed-and-breakfasts offer a unique lodging experience.

Many of our B&Bs and inns offer special "romantic packages."

Take in all the amenities that the lake and area offer throughout the year. Go horseback riding at one of the local stables, or enjoy an intimate sleigh ride through the snow-covered countryside.

When autumn rolls around, there's nothing like a scenic drive amid the dazzling fall colors in Mountain Maryland. Several driving tours showcase the picturesque landscapes and towns that shape our county. Be sure to stop by the Visitors Center for driving maps, including the "Maryland Scenic By-Ways Guide," which includes four tours crisscrossing Garrett County.

While on your romantic getaway, take in any number of festivals that occur throughout the year, such as the Deep Creek Lake Art and Wine Festival. Pick up a special gift from one of our many artists or a prized bottle of wine from our local vineyard.

And at the end of the day, settle in for a candlelit dinner by the lake before retiring for the evening—and find out why Garrett County is full of magic and memories.

GET A TASTE OF garrett county

Whether skiing the slopes, hiking mountain trails, or kicking back with a book in the hammock by the lake, you're going to work up an appetite. So find a pub, grab some pizza, or settle down for a gourmet meal and get a taste of Garrett County.

Food for Thought

For a broad sampling of the county's fare, try "A Taste of Garrett County," held each May at the Lodge at Wisp. There you can enjoy foods and beverages prepared, produced, and served by local businesses. A portion of the proceeds helps maintain local trails.

A Quick Bite

With so much to do in Garrett County—from kayaking to snowboarding—you might not have time for a relaxing sit-down. Fortunately, Deep Creek and its environs offer a host of casual options. There are pizza, subs, burger carry-outs, and family restaurants. You'll also find great ribs, Chinese, and Mexican. Local gourmet shops fix everything from homemade soups and fresh egg salad to special focaccia sandwiches, or pick up some specialty cheeses and meats for your own picnic lunch. Some places will even prepare box lunches for you so you're ready to go in style.

Deep Creek Unique

Gourmet cooking is no stranger to the county; many restaurants have brought in talented chefs who create inspired menus with local fare, from French to contemporary. Fine wine lists complement menus with numerous selections from a host of nearby vineyards. The good news for boaters is that the lake and its restaurants were planned with you in mind; several provide docking for your vessel.

Local Flavor—from All Over

Don't miss the special local taste stemming from a deep regional heritage, including numerous spots with a strong Mennonite or Amish influence. From unique pumpkin rolls to homemade pies and muffins, your sweet tooth will find satisfaction with every bite.

Do-It-Yourself, with Style

Whether you enjoy roasting hotdogs over the campfire or whipping up a soufflé in a gourmet kitchen outfitted for the finest chef, Garrett County has all the provisions you need, from high-end imported and domestic delicacies to ready-to-heat gourmet foods and made-to-order sandwiches and subs. Local farms even offer world-class artisan cheeses.

Evening Fun

You've got to eat, but Deep Creek also feeds the fun-loving part of your soul with music and cocktails at lively late-night spots that also serve light fare. Top dance bands from Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, DC, and Virginia come to the mountains. Everything from rock 'n' roll to country spills out of taverns all over the county.

treasures
WITHOUT THE MALL...

Steeped in history, Garrett County is home to traditional shops and great antiques. But it also has all the trappings of a fine getaway, from books for relaxing by the lake or by the fire to the latest snowboard for hitting the slopes. And it's all within a few minutes' drive.

In Garrett County, shopping is not only a treasure hunt—it's a vacation in and of itself. Stoplights and traffic are scarce; beautiful scenery shoulders country roads, and getting to your destination is part of the pleasure. Shopping is concentrated to three main areas, but be sure to keep your eyes open beyond the main streets.

Grantsville

Attractive antiques and pretty settings go hand in hand in Grantsville. The picturesque town in the northeast part of the county has an artisans' village where you can watch craft demonstrations and purchase handcrafted products. Many of the neighboring Amish sell homemade quilts and food items in Grantsville, as well.

McHenry

McHenry, the area that weaves around Deep Creek Lake, does a great job of supplying everything vacationers need. In proximity to the lake you can find groceries, gifts, specialty candies, upscale clothing, a liquor store, a gourmet shop with coffee and cheeses, and all manner of ski, golf, and other sporting equipment. And remember—some of the shopping is accessible by boat.

Oakland

Oakland, the county seat, is the quintessential small town with a population of 2,000 people. Here you'll find everything from charming shops to modern conveniences, as well as an open-air market (in-season) on Wednesdays and Saturdays. On and around Main Street, there are women's and men's clothing stores, a pharmacy, bookstore, antiques, furniture, food items, and an old-fashioned lunch counter. Many businesses have been family-owned for generations.
